

LABQUALITY DAYS

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS ON QUALITY IN LABORATORY MEDICINE & HEALTH TECHNOLOGY

8-9 FEBRUARY 2024
HELSINKI, FINLAND

Labquality Days is one of the largest international congresses in Scandinavia focusing on quality in laboratory medicine and health technology.

The inspiring atmosphere of the scientific congress gathers medical laboratory and health technology professionals together to exchange ideas and meet colleagues in Finland annually.

In addition to the extensive two-day program, the congress includes an exhibition of companies in the field of clinical laboratory, IT and health technology.

Join us to hear the latest developments in laboratory medicine and health technology, and spend a couple of days in beautiful winter Helsinki!
